

MEET THE INSTRUCTORS

REBECCA MAILLOUX

Women's Golf Coach

Camp Director

Rebecca Mailloux is in her first season as head coach of the women's golf team at Grand Valley State. She inherits a program that finished third at the 2008 NCAA Division II National Championship, won the 2008 GLIAC Championship, and returns four of its top five golfers.

Mailloux joins the Laker program after a four-year stint as head coach at Saint Leo in Florida. While at Saint Leo, she guided the Lions to five top-10 finishes during the 2007-08 season, including three top-5 finishes. During her tenure, Saint Leo competed in what is widely regarded as perhaps the best women's golf conference in the country. In 2008, five of the top seven schools in the final Division II Golf Coaches Association poll were from the Sunshine State Conference.

A 2001 graduate of South Florida, Mailloux spent two years on the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Futures Tour. She totaled a career-best 15th place finish at the Denver Futures Classic, shooting a 220 (74-74-72). Mailloux gained full exemption status in her second year on the tour. While at South Florida, she played at No. 3 on the golf team and helped the Bulls win the Conference USA championship twice and reach the NCAA Tournament during her junior and senior years.

A native of West Warwick, R.I., Mailloux was the Rhode Island women's amateur champion from 1996 to 2000, finished second in the Massachusetts Open in 2001, returning in 2003 to win the championship. She was voted the 2002 Rhode Island female athlete of the year.
